Don't Understand It at the Sub-Treasury -Provident Seekers for Time Money Run the Rate Up-Discussing How Long Gold Exports Wift Be Delayed. A curiosity of finance is presented at this time by cross movements of money between this city and San Francisco. A few days ago United States Treasurer Roberts authorized New York financial interests to transfer by telegraph to San Francisco, through the local Sub-Treasury an amount up to $2,000,000, and on Thursday $250,000 was thus transferred. Yesterday the local Sub-Treasury paid to the local agents of the Bank of British North America, by telegraphic transfer from San Francisco, $100,000; and it was reported that rivate shipment from 000,000 was received San Francisco unancial interest. last week by a Thus money is moving both to and from San Francisco at the same time, a thing which the Sub-Treasury officers said yes terday was inexplicable to them.

The movement of money from this city to San Francisco has been attributed to the fact that money rates there have reached 71/2 per cent, and that the financial interests there wanted to withdraw funds that they loaned at this centre in the recent stringent money period, because their own reserves were down and demands were made upon them for money to move the crops on the Pacific Coast. An early crop movement is desired owing to the heavy export demand that exists because of the drought in Australia.

A representative of the Bank of British North America said yesterday that while its money here, where it could use it to even better advantage than at San Francisco. It did not want to loan it in San Francisco. The $100,000 represented Yukon gold. It had been cheater to arrange for its transfer by telegraph, depositing it in the San Francisco Sub-Treasury and having it paid out by the Sub-Treasury here, than to transfer it by draft.

The Sub-Treasury received $202,327 yesterday in payment of customs duties. The total of such payments for the week was $3,273,000 against $3,819,205 in the week vance that took place on Friday in time money rates, when 6 per cent, and a commission of as high as 5 of 1 per cent, were demanded on sixty-day loans. This is at the rate of 9 per cent, a year. It was reported yesterday that the reason for the high rates lay in the decision of the banks to shut down as far as resultle or sixty down as far as result as sixty down as far as results as sixty down as sixty down as far as results as sixty down as far as results a to shut down as far as possible on sixty-day loans to carry over the first of the year that is, the period during which prepara-tions must be made for the January inter-est and dividend disbursements. These disbursements will be very heavy, and the banks, in view of the fact that their cash reserves have been greatly reduced, are understood to want to provide against understood to want to provide against further losses to the Sub-Treasury, as well as losses of each through other sources.

Should a return flow of money from the interior of the country set in in volume bankers expect easier money rates. At any rate, whem some of the Wall Street brokers on Friday got an it.kling of the decision of the banks, they hustled around to secure al the available time money they could get, and later, when the situation became gen-erally known, the time rate ran up to a very affected, ruling at 6 per cent.

The sterling exchange market showed firmness early vesterday with demand bills touching $4.5 10 and at the same time cable. despatches announced a decline of one-half of a centime, to 25 francs 11½ centimes in Paris exchange on London, these changes bringing the gold export point meas trable nearer. Later in the day, however, the loca rate eased, closing at about $4.895. Prominent local banking interests adhere to t opinion that no immediate chance of gol exports exists. Charles Schumaker, wh is looked upon as an authority on exquing matters, made this statement yesterday: matters, made this statement yesterday.

A great many sterling loans have been made and renewed since our report of the 7th inst, and consequently the supply of finance bills has been very large. Exchange, however, is in a very strong position and we believe that rates will continue high for the balance of the year. The probability of exports of gold seems remote at the present time, as the bankers will use their credit abroad to their fullest extent and when the price of exchange nearly reaches the point where profitable shipments can be made the market is flooded with finance bills. Call money rules firm at from 5 to 8 per cent, while the time money for 80 to 90 days is very active at 626% per cent, and while time funds are in such good demand we think that the majority of sterling loans will be care ried over until spring. The Treasury report of exports of cotton for the month of October shows a decrease of $4.592,048 less than in same month of 1991, while imports are largely increased, and unless these figures are revised Europe will have to be paid in gold for our indebtedness.

Two More to Be Built to Checkmate the Harriman Opposition.

TACOMA. Wash., Nov. 15 -- President Mellen announced to-day that the Northern Pacific is now surveying for and intends next year to construct two important extensions in this State. The apparent object of building them is to checkmate the Harriman system which now either occupies or is seeking to control territory tributary to the proposed extension.

The longest one comprises a branch line down the north bank of the Columbia River from Kalama to the Pacific Ocean, opposite Astoria. This line will parallel the Portland and Astoria Railroad, running along the south bank of the Commune, which is controlled by the Harriman system. This road was built originally as an independent line. C. P. Huntington took pendent line. C. P. Austington interest along the south bank of the Columbia, which pendent line. C. P. Huntington took steps before his death to acquire an interest

The Northern Pacific would either like to own this road or protect itself by a par-allel line, thereby securing an ocean outlet for i's Oregon business.

The second proposed branch is from the Columbia River to the Yakima Valley in central Washington by way of Cispus pass. The Vancouver and Yakima Railroad is controlled by the Oregon Railroad. It is one of the richest undeveloped parts of Washington.

Republican Leaders Considering Propo tions to Begin Work in 1904.

ALBANY, Nov. 15 .- The State Republican eaders, including Gov. Odell, are considering plans and legislation which will permit of the beginning of the thousandon barge canal improvement in 1904. One thing that has been decided is that the mount expended in any one year shall not exceed an amount which may be used or that purpose from indirect taxation. It is expected that the next Legislature will enact such legislation as will produce enough revenue from indirect sources, aside from moneys now needed for the ordinary expenses of the State government, is will take care of the principal and interest of the $85,000,000 bonds necessary to be issued to meet the cost of canal improve-

Since then the Buffalo steel plant, with an authorized capital of $50,000,000, and other steel plants to be established at Buffalo by the Goodyear-Rogers interests and the Susquehanna Railroad, with a capital of $15,000-,000, have been formed to operate in Buffalo, and they will get their iron ore from the Port Henry mines on the Champlain Canal. This canal, in places, has a depth of from five to seven feet. But Buffalo commercial interests think it should be enlarged to accommodate a 1,000-ton barge, in view of the fact that the big iron and steel interests at Buffalo will take most of their ore from the Port Henry mines.

Senator Henry H. Hill of Buffalo was in Albany to-night, in company with the State Superintendent of Public Works Charles S. Boyd, and they discussed the proposed plans for canal improvement. Several constitutional amendments are pending which authorize the expenditure of the necessary moneys for canal improvement.

MRS. STANTON'S BRAIN. she Willed It to Cornell, but Relatives Object to Giving It Up.

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 15 .- A controversy going on between the relatives of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton, the great woman suffragist leader, and the department of neurology of Cornell University over the question of whether Prof. Burt G. Wilder, head of that department at Cornell, will be able to obtain the brain of Mrs. Stanton to place on the shelves of his department, along with those of the other noted people whose brains Dr. Wilder has already secured.

About two years ago Helen Gardnier. he author and friend of Mrs. Stanton, induced Mrs. Stanton to will her brain to Cornell, Mrs. Gardnier already having done so. Since the death of the Mrs. Stanton, however, Mrs. Blatch, a daughter who lives at (5) West Ninety-fourth street, has objected to giving Prof. Wilder the brain, despite the clause in Mrs. Stan-Prof. Wilder has divided the brains which Prof. Wilder has divided the brains which he has in his collection into two classes, the criminal class and the educated class. The brains of the criminals he keeps on the shelves on the outside of his office, while those of the educated people he keeps within what is called the "sacred circle," which no one but himself is allowed to see. Among the educated people who have given their brains to Cornell are Dr. Chauncey Wright, the Harvard professor, and Prof. Oliver of Cornell, the mathematician.

When Helen Gardnier induced Mrs. Stanton to give her brain to Cornell she evi-ton to give her brain to Cornell she evidently appreciated the ludicrous side of the situation as well as the scientific, as she wrote the following poem to commemorate the compact:

Corked in a decanter on shelf so bigh.

Hold converse with Scientists all round the wall.
Hear Flizabeth urging each neighbor to vote

POSTPONES HIS LONG WALK. Capt. Erkenbrack of Saratoga, 95 Years Old. Will Start for This City Next Spring.

SARATOGA, Nov. 15 .- Capt. John Erkenrack, who had announced his intention of starting out on his projected 200-mile pedestrian jaunt to New York city, has made a change in his programme. He had fixed upon Nov. 25 as the date of his departure, but being apprehensive of un-propitious fall weather his friends have prevailed upon him to d fer the trip until next spring. As the captain was born in the town of Clifton Park, Saratoga county, Sept. 9, 1808, and is now in the $21 year of his age, the magnitude of his under-taking can be better understood.

Who Disappeared Two Weeks Ago, Found. POUGHKEEPSIE, Nov. 15. - The body of James Waters, who, with Miss Kitty McLaughlin, disappeared from this city three weeks ago, was found to-day, in the Hudson River, about thirty feet north of the Hyde Park landing and about twenty the flyde fark landing and about twenty feet from shore. It was located between the piles of an old pier and was raised with difficulty. After the body had been taken from the water, the searchers grap-pled for the body of Miss McLaughlin, but were unsuccessful, and at dark, stopped. The work will be resumed to-morrow. Waters body was brought to his home in this city. Miss McLaughlin's sister, Mrs. Mamie Welsh of Chicago, arrived here to-night and she is greatly distressed.

Body Cut in Two by the Cars.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Nov. 15 .- The body of a man, cut in two by the cars, apparently 20 years old, was found along the Eric tracks at Sterlington, Rockland county, at an early hour this morning by the crew of Conductor Carley's eastbound freight. There was nothing in his pockets which would throw any light on his identity.

Western Railroads Putting Up the Pay of the Switchmen Generally-Conference in Cleveland Over an Increase in That Territory-"Big Four" Comes In.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15 .- George F. Baer president of the Reading company, will probably announce next week a 10 per cent. increase in the pay of all the road's 18,000 employees. Any such advance, it is said will date, like the Pennsylvania Railroad's increase, from Nov. 1. When positive confirmation of this raise was sought in the Reading terminal this morning, no one would stand as official sponsor for the story, although personally nearly all expressed themselves as believing it to be true. "Will the wages of Reading employees be advanced?" was the question asked in President Baer's office. "There is nothing to say," was the answer sent back. Only a little more definite was the answer received to the same question from the office of Theodore Voorhees, the first office of Theodore Voorhees, the first vice-president.

"No announcement of any increase will be made to-day," and it was said with emphasis on the "to-day."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 15 .- An advance in wages amounting to about 10 per cent will be granted "Big Four" switchmen and will be granted "Big Four" switchmen and yard employees at once, according to President Ingalis. He said to-day:

"The demand for more wages for switchmen began at Chicago and is sweeping over the country. We are granting the advance in all the larger cities. The Big Four has raised the wages of all other employees equivalent to 10 per cent, within the last year."

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 15.—The Union Pacific has just granted the Chicago scale to all switchmen thoughout the system. This affects 500 men on the system. The increase to foremen will be four cents an hour and to helpers three cents an hour. CLEVELAND, Nov. 15.—A general advance in the wages of trainmen on all lines between Chicago and Buffalo, Salamanca, Pittsburg and the Ohio River is likely within the next few weeks. It is said that a 10 per cent increase is almost inevitable.

the next few weeks. It is said that a 10 per cent increase is almost inevitable.

Such was the octermination of the various officers of the leading railroads of this section of the country following a consultation on Friday. On that day some of the leading men of the country were here. C. E. Schaff of the Big Four was in the city, with James McCrea of the Pennsylvania and W. C. Brown of the Lake Shore. At the same time resident operating men made it a point to be in the city, and among them were H. E. Gilpin, general superintendent of the Erie; A. W. Johnson, general Superintendent of the Nickel Plate, and Robert Blickensderfer, general manager of the Wheeling and Lake Erie.

That a general conference on the subject was held is denied, but that there is a general understanding on the point of the impossibility of preventing an advance is admitted. While all of the operating officials mentioned were not in one meeting at one time, there was an exchange of opinions among them for the better part of the day in smell grouve.

Capt. F. M. Hodgkins and the crew of the schooner R. F. Pettigrew were landed here yesterday by the schooner C. H. Sprague of Georgetown, S. C. The Pettigrew sailed from Savannah on Nov. 9, and ran into a severe storm early on Suaday morning when about ninety miles off Cape Hatteras. By Monday the schooner had settled so much that the crew were forced to abandon her. After twelve hours in the boats they were picked up by the Sprague.

MORRIS PRESIDENT AGAIN.

AS TO REORGANIZING COUNTY COMMITTEE, YOU CAN'T.

Its Members Were Elected Under the Primary Law on Sept. 16 Last and Nobody Can Put Them Out of Their Places -Mr. Morris Will Be Re-elected.

The Hon. Robert C. Morris will be relected president of the Republican County ommittee of New York. There is a good deal of opposition, but away back in the ime of the Hon. Frank S. Black, Governor of the State of New York, a primary law was passed. For the last two or three days there has been more or less pother at the Fifth Avenue Hotel about the reorganization of the Republican County Committee, and ome of the mugwump newspapers have taken up the subject, and delight in it. It was these very same mugwump newspapers that it sisted that Mr. Black, as Governor of the Sate, get this primary law through. Senator Platt grinned at the time; so did

Mr. Odell, now Governor of the S at-This Primary law is just as effective in State matters as in election matters, and it provides for the election of the Republican machinists. BRYAN ADVISED BOLTING?

Indianapolis Story That He Helped Defeat the Democratic Ticket There. Indianapolis, Nov. 15 .- A charge was made this morning in the Indianapolis Journal, the Republican organ of Indiana, on the authority of a Republican of unquestioned reliability" that William J. Bryan caused the slump of 15,000 in the Democratic vote at the recent election. The charge is that Bryan sent out between 10,000 and 15,000 personal letters to Indiana Democrats urging them to defeat the Democratic State ticket. The article says: "In this letter Mr. Bryan is seid to have pointed out that the reorganizing element in the Democratic party had usurped control in this State and had manipulated things in the State convention in such a manner as to stifle the majority f the delegates and to nominate a ticket of their own followers. He said that the future of the Democracy rested with the old-line element in the party, the men who had stood lovally by the national ticket in 1896 and 1900, and that the organizers were really as antagonistic to true Democratic principles as were the Republicans.

"He argued that the reorganizers should get a stinging rebuke and a defeat that would completely demoralize them and convince them once and for all that men who turned political somersaults every wo years could not control the Democratic party in Indiana or in the country at large. The letter was a powerful appea and there is no doubt that it had a tremendous influence.

The pamphiet was so prepared that its source could not be legated. be located. It may have come from a committee of Bryanites and it may have come from the Republican leaders. "Mr. Bryan followed up his letter with articles in the Commoner along the same line, although not so plainly worded, and his paper has a large circulation in this state. Consequently he was hammering is doctrines home to his adherents all brough the campaign and did not permit them to lose sight of the one principle for which he claimed to be fighting—the preser-vation of the real Democracy."

Governor's Appointments Confirmed. DOVER, Del., Nov. 15 .- The reason for he flurry among the Addicks Republicans during the past few days was disclosed o-day. They are alarmed over reports concerning the new State Senate. The new State Senate will have to confirm all of the Governor's appointments, together with those he has made during the past two years. A combination of the Regular Republicans and Dmeocrats against the Addicks men would, it is said, throw out of office many State officials, serving under Gov. Hunn's commission, including Magstrate Bradley of Wilmington, who was conspicuous in the recent Republican nominations in that city. The new State Senate has some Democrats and three Regular Republicans. These ten man can control the Senate, overthrowing all the ap-pointments, if they see fit, during their first executive session. The working majority of the seventeen members is nine.

RAID ON WOMEN'S POOL ROCM.

THAT'S WHAT THE POLICE CALL IT-THREE WOMEN TAKEN.

Last of a Procession That Was Moving Away From the Place by the Time the Detectives, Disguised as Telephone Two detectives of the East 104th street station, disguised as linemen for the telephone company, made a raid on an alleged poolroom for women in the ground floor of the flathouse at 76 West 113th street yesterday afternoon. Some of the patr n of the place got away, but the police arreste. the alleged proprietor and four women. Capt. Eibert O. Smith got wind of 1 c place a few days ago in a letter from a woman who said she had lost $76 there and was convinced that it was lost in a swindling game. The police soon found that the place had a telephone wire and that women were going there every after-Detectives Cassidy and Howard put on linemen's clothes, took some nippers and other tools along and then, according to their story, "tapped the wire" and heard enough over it to convince them that a man inside the flat was receiving returns from the races at Bennings. The detectives then went out in the back yard and overheard the man announcing the returns. The people inside, however, began to smell a rat at this time and when the detectives got around to the front door they found a man pushing three women, appar-

round a rai pushing three women, apparently the last of a procession that already extended well up the street, out of the hall of the house. Cassidy and Howard arrested the three womer and two men.

The man said he was R. A. Brown. He was locked up, e arged with running the poolroom. Capt. Smith says Brown came here from the West recently and is backed by a syndicate. The women said they were Laura Barr. Catharine Dare and May Lynch. They were arrested on the charge of dding and abetting in the tunning of the
